

SPORTING NEWS SPECIALLY REPORTED FOR THE EVENING WORLD.

Youth will play a part in my fight with Fitzsimmons to-morrow. That's in my favor. I'm down to weight and strong. I won't predict in what round I'll win.

LARSPUR, CAL., NOV. 24, 1903.

—GEORGE GARDNER.

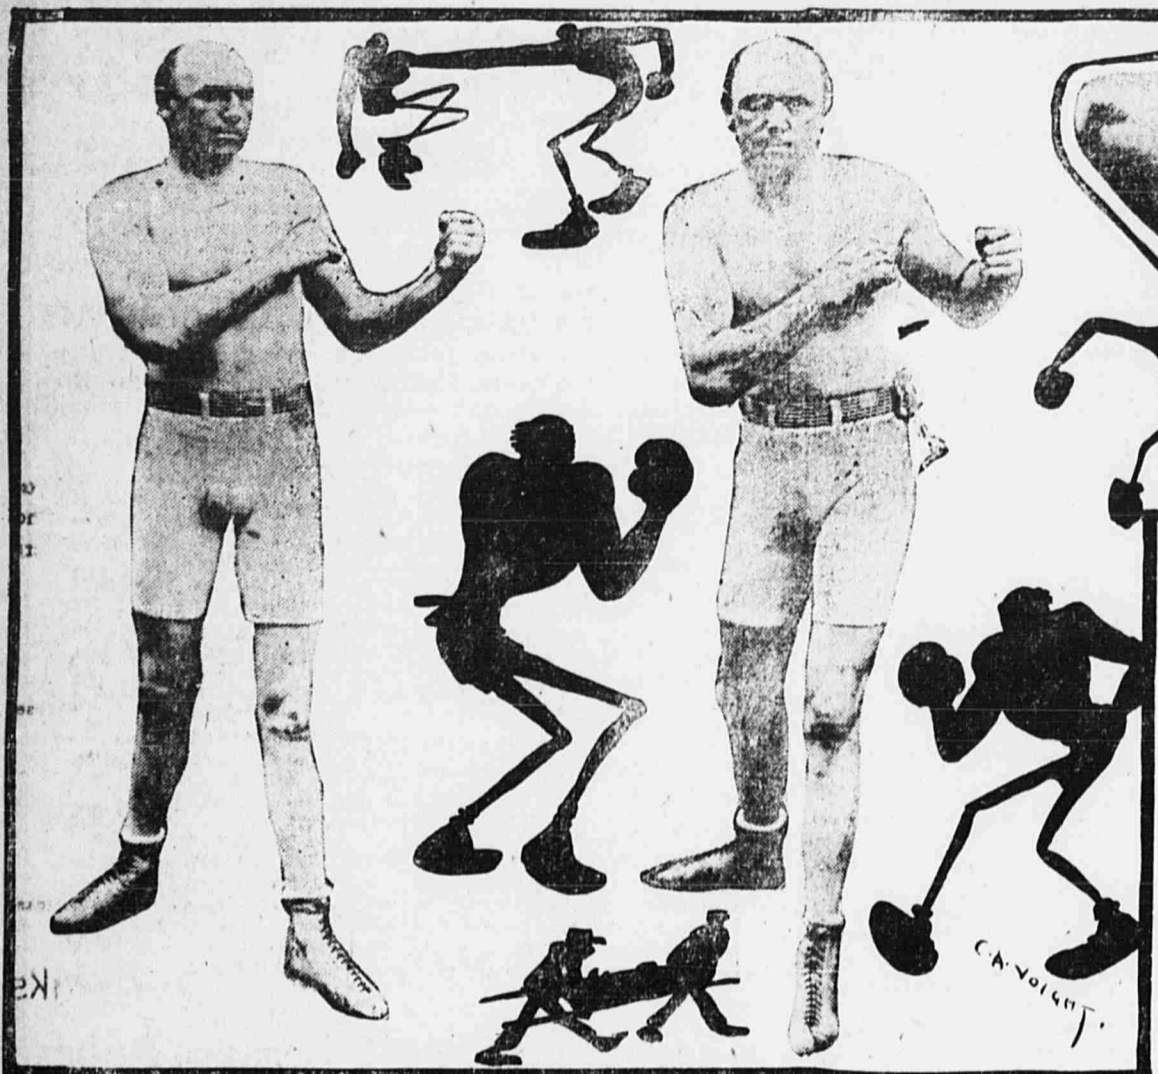

I'll upset that "youth theory" of Gardner's to-morrow. He may be strong, but they will carry him out of the ring before the end of the fifth round.

ALAMEDA, CAL., NOV. 24, 1903.

—ROBERT FITZSIMMONS.

THIS IS THE "OLD MAN" THAT GEORGE GARDNER IS GOING TO TRY TO BEAT TO-MORROW NIGHT---CAN HE DO IT?

THESE PICTURES OF BOB FITZSIMMONS WERE TAKEN EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE EVENING WORLD JUST BEFORE HE WENT WEST TO TRAIN FOR HIS BATTLE WITH GARDNER.

IN REPOSE AND READY FOR A LEAD.

KELLY WASN'T CYCLONIC IN HIS FIGHT WITH TEMPLE

The Whirlwind from Chicago Made the 'Frisco Cyclone Look Like a Gentle Zephyr After Five Rounds in Philadelphia Ring Last Night.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—LARRY Temple, the black whirlwind from Chicago, made "Cyclone" Kelly, of Frisco, look like a gentle summer breeze after five rounds of boxing in the arena of Washington Sporting Club last night.

Kelly, who has been boxing around here for some time, has lived up to his cyclonic name, and defeated some of the good winter-weights, and it was fully expected that he would give Tom O'Rourke's new black wonder a good licking, but when it came to fighting last night he never got a look in for the decision. Kelly, who Temple beat him from the drop of the flag to the five-falling post, when Kelly took a sudden stop by order of Referee Ropay, who said the white man could no longer stand the grueling that Temple was handing out. This bout and a semi-wind-up between Johnny Burns, of Chicago, and "Crocky" Boyle, of Philadelphia, was the card offered, but even with all its attractiveness it failed to draw a full house, and a very small crowd was on hand when the first preliminary was put on.

The Burns and Boyle bout was a slashing affair, and went to the limit with honors even at the end. This was Burns' first appearance in this city, and he made a very favorable impression. He is fast, clever, and a good puncher, and looks to be in line to defeat many of the crack feather-weights in town.

The Temple-Kelly bout was a fast, brutal contest, but one-sided, as Kelly was not able to offset Temple's rushes and terrific body punches. For a part of the opening round Kelly showed up fairly well, but when Temple began laying hard lefts to the body and right-hand swings to the face, Kelly began to weaken and lost all form. He was knocked down repeatedly, but he came up game and willing.

The fifth round was a sad one for him, as he took the count twice and was utterly unable to even defend himself, and as he had no earthly chance of winning, the referee stopped the bout.

DONNELLY AGAIN GIVES FIGHT AWAY

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 24.—Another bad decision is marked up for Dan Donnelly, who refereed the bout last night between Danny Duane, of New York, and Kid Griffo, of Philadelphia, which took place at the Tammany Athletic Club. The bout was listed to 15 rounds, but it went only five. Griffo, who was in the middle of the fifth, gains to the mat and claiming a foul. He got up, however, and resumed when the referee took no notice of his claim. But, to the surprise of the 1200 members present, Donnelly separated the two from a clinch and sent them to their corners, following with a decision in Griffo's interest. He was roundly abused, and a more dissatisfied crowd never left the club-house.

It was Duane's last from the start, and he had Griffo smothering and stalling as far as they went. He repeatedly jabbed Griffo without a return, and in combining a right to the heart and left hook to jaw landed nearly every time he used it.

The preliminary, between Fred Vanuch, of Toronto, and Billy Hill, the Pickaninny, was a hot affair, and the decision of a draw at the end of six rounds suited the members.

SCHUMAKER'S NEXT FIGHT.

Willie Schumaker, of the Avonia A. C., the ex-65-pound champion of America, who defeated "Kid" Murphy in a fifteen-round bout in private recently, was matched last night to meet "Kid" McLaughlin, of Philadelphia, in a six-round bout before the Avonia A. C., of Philadelphia. Tomorrow night, this bout will be the second of a six-round "go" between Jack O'Reilly, of Philadelphia, and Mike Tutus, of this city.

JEFF SAYS FITZ OUGHT TO WIN

Champion Jim Jeffries thinks Fitzsimmons will beat George Gardner to-morrow night in Frisco. Jeff allows for Gardner's youth and all that, but he says Fitz has the experience and the punch, and he is a thorough fighter. Jeff doesn't think Gardner will ever reach his class. He is too light now, and if he took him on the public would realize that the match would be one-sided.

The champion during his stay in town, has shown a weakness for taking in all the shows. He has seen nearly all the plays of note, so tonight, with a party of friends, including Deputy Chief Burke and Al Hall, the "Frisco" sporting man, he will occupy a box at Keith's, and hear his old friend, Joe Maxwell, and his quartet in their firemen's singing act.

POOL TOURNEY BEGINS.

The first game of a series of six of the Harlem professional pool tourney will begin tonight at No. 245 Seventh avenue. To-night's game will be a handicap match between Charlie Otis, of Brooklyn, and J. Grogan, of Harlem. The game will be for 200 points. Bergman Bros., who are running the tourney, offer a $1000 medal to the winner of the tourney.

"Kid" Lewis, Charlie Burns, Clearwater and the "St. Louis" Kid" are among the other players entered.

DOUBLE HEADER FOOTBALL.

In addition to the Gaelic football game to be played in the county organization championship at West New York Field on Sunday, a Rugby game between the Colonial A. C., of Harlem, and the Olympics of Union Hill will be decided.

CORBETT MATCHED WITH HANLON

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—The difference between the Hayes Valley A. C. of this city, and "Young Corbett" have been settled, and the feather-weight champion will defend his title against Eddie Hanlon, the California feather-weight before that Club on Dec. 28. According to the articles of agreement which both "Young Corbett" and Hanlon signed they will weigh in at 129 pounds at 6 o'clock on the afternoon of the fight.

HAGHEY TO FIGHT CAREY AT HUB

Ed. Keavin, matchmaker of the Tammany A. C., of Boston, has arranged a good bout to be fought at his club on Thanksgiving night. The principals in the main bout will be Tom ("Jabber") Carey, of this city, the clever middle-weight fighter, and Charley Haghey, of Boston, who returned from England a few weeks ago, where he engaged in four battles.

HOGAN WILL LEAD YALE'S NEXT TEAM

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 24.—Jim Hogan will captain the Yale football team next year. Hogan has filled the position of tackle on the team for the last three years. He will be elected captain of the team for the purpose of the year, who was the captain of the team this year, will relinquish the position, but will nevertheless play on the team. Hogan is one of the strongest tackles Yale has ever had.

EXPERTS IN 'FRISCO ON BIG FIGHT.

Eddie Graney, Who Will Referee the Contest; "Young Corbett," the World's Feather-Weight Champion; Harry Corbett, 'Frisco's Leading Sporting Authority, and "Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien, the Famous Middle-Weight, Will Send Their Versions of the Fitzsimmons-Gardner Contest from 'Frisco to The Evening World.

JIM CORBETT BETS $500 ON GARDNER

Betting in this city on the fight to-morrow night in San Francisco between Bob Fitzsimmons and George Gardner is not as brisk as it was generally expected to be. Although reports from the reports that have reached here from the coast about Fitz's condition, Corbett shifted to Gardner.

WITHIN THE RING POSTS.

A match has been practically arranged between Joe Gans, the champion light-weight, and Mike "Twin" Sullivan, of Boston. Matchmaker Mike Murray, of the Criterion A. C., of the Hub, has offered both men a good inducement for a fifteen-round bout before his club the early part of next month. The managers of the fighters will sign the articles of agreement in a few days.

BRITT'S MANAGER FOXY.

Jimmy Britt, by virtue of the cleverness of his manager, succeeded in getting more than half of the gross receipts of the Britt-Canole fight. The manager, "Brother Billy," had a private understanding with the club whereby Jimmy was to receive fifteen per cent on the side. Canole only got $37.28 for taking the beating. It will be seen that this left the club little to defray expenses.

TUCKER AND GOODWIN AT HUB.

"Chick" Tucker, the feather-weight

HURLING MATCH OF YEAR PROMISED

The hurling match of the year, before which all others fade into insignificance, is scheduled for Thanksgiving Day at Celtic Park, when the Dalys, of Brooklyn, the New York State champions, cross sticks with the Mitchells for the State championship. On paper one would think that the Dalys had a walk-over, but when it is considered that the Mitchells are hurriers who have played together on the other side for years and that they are composed of some of the best players of the champion Meaghers, the aspect changes.

With such men as the Egan brothers and McElinchy on the Mitchell team the Dalys will be placed on their mettle to win. In science of the game, in knowledge of every hauling trick known, they are evenly matched, and the sole thing that will decide the match is condition and the amount of practice they have taken.

LUNDIN THREW PARR.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 24.—Jim Parr, of Buffalo, was beaten by Hjalmar Lundin in a mixed style wrestling match in Mechanics' Hall last night. Lundin won the first and third falls at Greco-Roman style, and Parr the second fall at catch-as-catch-can. The time was twenty-four, twenty-nine and thirteen minutes.

BRIGHTON A. C. VS. 47TH REG'T.

The Brighton A. C., champions of Brooklyn, 1903, will play the Champion Company D team of the Forty-seventh Regiment indoor baseball at the Armory, Marcy avenue and Heyward street, Thanksgiving Day. Game called at 8:15 P. M.

FITZ'S BACK MUSCLES.

HERE IS WHERE THE "OLD MAN" GETS THE DRIVING POWER INTO THE PUNCH THAT HAS SENT SO MANY OF HIS OPPONENTS TO THE LAND OF STAR AND MOONS.

THIS WILL BE POPULAR PAIR IN SIX-DAY RACE

When the riders are sent away on their long journey of 142 hours in the international championship six-day bicycle race in Madison Square Garden, shortly after 12 o'clock on Sunday night, Dec. 6, there will be a pair of youngsters among the bunch of pedalers who will bear watching during the week.

The pair compose the pony team entered by Jim Richards. They are Oliver Dorion, the metropolitan amateur ice skater, a wonderful little bicycle rider, and Eddie Root, who until last year was an amateur and finished second to Marcus Hurley in the championships. Dorion is not yet nineteen years of age, while Root has yet to see his twentieth birthday.

They have been training for two weeks at Manhattan Beach, and so well have they ridden together that Root induced Dorion to join the professional ranks and ride as his team mate in the race.

Dorion's career as an ice skater began last winter, and before the season had ended he had beaten every prominent amateur in America. He won two Metropolitan championships and broke a dozen records.

This year he entered his first bicycle race. After winning the novice race he started in the Kennedy-Powers Handicap, at two miles, on the same day, and won easily. The first prize was a horse and buggy. Out of thirty-five starts he won twenty-five prizes. He is considered the best pursuit rider in America.

CHICAGO'S WAY TO STOP HAND-BOOKS

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—The "Ticker" Ordinance, by means of which Mayor Harrison hopes to prevent handbook gambling in Chicago, was passed last night by the City Council. The ordinance provides for the licensing of all tickers, the fee being $1 a year, and before being granted a license each applicant must file a bond of $1000 not to violate any city ordinance.

It is further provided that the tickers so licensed shall not be used to transmit any racing news, betting odds or other information for the purpose of making bets or wagers on horse races, or any other information for the purpose of gambling.

Bennings Stewards Question Jockey Wonderly and John McGraw, but Can't Reach Definite Decision Until Owner Is Interrogated on Colt's Reversal.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—If any startling disclosures are to be made regarding the running of the two-year-old Orthodoxy in the Consolation Stakes and his previous race, they will not be announced until to-morrow, at least. There is talk of "dope," &c., in connection with the colt, but such stories are always floated in cases of startling reversals, but rarely do they prove true.

The stewards, however, are now investigating the running of the colt, but until to-morrow, when Owner M. L. Hayman is due here, no definite action can or will be taken.

Jockey Wonderly, who rode Orthodoxy last week when he was badly beaten, has been questioned by the stewards, but says, as he did originally, that in his opinion, the colt couldn't negotiate the deep going on the home stretch. He ran with the greatest freedom through the back stretch, says the jockey, but stopped to nothing on the turn home. This would appear all right if Orthodoxy hadn't come out a few days afterward in the big Consolation Stakes and made a show of his field. And this time he was at a long price—1 to 2—due solely to his bad previous race.

John McGraw, manager of the New York baseball team, who, on the day of Orthodoxy's bad race, berated Owner Hayman by saying in his opinion the horse was "dead" under Wonderly and for that reason didn't win, was also before the stewards yesterday. His statement was not made public.

McGraw was responsible for Wonderly taking the mount on Orthodoxy when he was beaten. Bullman had declined the mount. Wonderly accepting it only in the emergency.

Until the stewards have heard Owner Hayman's version of the controversy nothing will be done. Hayman was called to blame the poor showing of the colt on the poor judgment of race by Wonderly.

VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY DROPPED.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Nov. 24.—At a faculty meeting of Washington and Jefferson College it was decided to cut off all athletic dealings with West Virginia University for four years. This action was taken because of the rioting following the football game between the colleges Saturday.
